1. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

2. Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 5, line 6, "bathe" should be changed to --bath-- for proper spelling. Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 recites "can be" which is indefinite as to its metes and bounds.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1722

6. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB (2 182 603) in view of Carlsen(-460).

GB (2 182 603: fig. 2) disclose a device including an extruder and a pipe head 11 for producing an extruded pipe 22, a vacuum suction bell connected in the production direction to the pipe head and formed by a vacuum-tight chamber 29 with a vacuum connection which creates bubble 22 defining the outside diameter of the extruded tube. The bubble size (outside diameter) is controlled by a vacuum connection (p. 2, lines 74-80). However, GB (2 182 603) doesn't disclose measuring instruments inside the chamber, which detect the outside diameter of the extruded pipe.

Carlsen(-460) discloses a device including an extruder and pipe head for producing an extruded pipe, blower means 12 and vacuum means 14 which create a pipe bubble defining the outside diameter, measuring instruments 21 which detect the outside diameter of the extruded pipe and, by changing the vacuum from the vacuum means, alter the outside diameter of the extruded pipe. The measuring instruments operate with sensing tools resting on the outside wall of the pipe (col. 3, lines 9-20; fig. 1).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to modify the apparatus of GB (2 182 603) with measuring instruments for detecting the outside diameter and for controlling the vacuum as disclosed by Carlsen(-460) because such a modification would enable control of the outside diameter by direct measurement.

7. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB (2 182 603) in view of Carlsen(-460) as applied to claims 1 and 2 above, and further in view of Sweeney et al.(-966).

Sweeney et al.(-966) disclose measuring instruments which control an outside diameter of an extruded pipe in a touch-free manner by means of sound or light sensors 166, 164, 162.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to further modify the apparatus such that the measuring instruments of Carlsen(-460) are replaced by the measuring instruments of Sweeney et al.(-966) because such measuring instruments are art recognized alternatives for measuring the outside diameter and because the measuring instruments of Sweeney et al.(-966) would provide measurements in a touch-free manner.

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 1722

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claim 5 is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 6 of copending Application No. 09/787,981. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because elimination of an element and its function if the remaining elements perform the same functions is an obvious expedient, In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
